Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-5 and 7-33 drawn to a method for the preparation of a polyaromatic carboxylic acid by reacting a non-heteroaromatic boronic acid with a halo-substituted non-heteroaromatic carboxylic acid, classified in class 562, subclass 480.
- II. Claims 1, 6, and 9, drawn to a method for the preparation of a polyaromatic carboxylic acid by reacting a heteroaromatic boronic acid containing thienyl, pyridyl, pyrrolyl, or furyl with a halo-substituted heteroaromatic carboxylic acid containing thienyl, pyridyl, pyrrolyl, or furyl, classified in class/ subclass 549/429, 472; 548/400; 546/93.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case, the invention of Group I is directed to the method for the preparation of polyaromatic carboxylic acid by reacting non-heteroaromatic boronic acid with halo-substituted non-heteroaromatic carboxylic acid, whereas the invention of Group II is directed to the method for the preparation of polyaromatic carboxylic acid by reacting heteroaromatic boronic acid containing thienyl, pyridyl, pyrrolyl, or furyl with halo-substituted heteroaromatic carboxylic acid containing thienyl, pyridyl, pyrrolyl, or furyl ; the hetero group is placed in the side branches of the core structure. They have different modes of operation , different functions or different effects because each of their reactants has a completely different chemical structure with respect to the core structure. For example, the reactant containing a hetero group has been known to have a different reactivity or a different effect in comparison with the one with the non-hetero groups. Therefore, Group I and Group II are unrelated to each other.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II; restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Furthermore, these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to Marc Bassler on 10/1/05 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Taylor Victor Oh whose telephone number is 571-272-0689. The examiner can normally be reached on 8:30-5:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Cecilia Tsang can be reached on 571-272-0562. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
